

2nd Sunday of Lent
Jesus & the prophets make us brave
Mark 9:1-9

Opening Game

Create an obstacle course for your family. Working in pairs, one person must be blindfolded and the other must guide their partner through the course using only their voice.

Was it hard to trust your partner? Was it scary?

Sometimes we must be brave to trust what we can't see or don't understand.

Lesson

Review the Journey to Easter from week 1.

Lenten wreath

Light one purple candle while saying the following: We light the first Lenten candle to remind us that Jesus is wise.

Light a second purple candle while saying the following: We light a second Lenten candle to remind us that Jesus & the Prophets make us brave.

Read – Mark 9:1-9

Watch video of Scripture here.

Who was being brave in the scripture(peter, James, john)

How were they being brave?

Who do you know who is brave? What are they like?

What stops people from being brave?

What helps you be brave?

Prayer practice rotations

1. Choose a wall in your house that will serve as a prayer wall for the remainder of Lent. Fill in the following prayer and rewrite using emoji's or pictures.

"I can be brave by _____ Jesus."

Tape onto designated wall.

2. Create a Mini wall with Legos or other materials.

Complete the sentence, "I can be brave by _____ Jesus."

Write that word on a piece of paper and attach to mini prayer wall.

Place mini wall near larger designated wall in house.

Closing Prayer

Thank you, Jesus, for bravely coming to show us what God is like. Please remind us this week that we can choose to be brave, through the strength of your Holy Spirit. Amen
