

Through a Glass ...

A Virtual 2020-2021 Season

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 2020, 3 P.M.

KALEIDOSCOPE

Live Recordings aired on YouTube 2ndpreslou

A brilliant array of vocal and instrumental works from Schubert, to opera, to Broadway - all recorded live at Second. You will hear Verdi's epic Quartet from RIGOLETTO, Villa-Lobos' enchanting BACHIANAS BRASILEIRAS, jewels of German lieder, and selections from musicals like LITTLE WOMEN. Our professional Octet is featured, along with special guest performers and collaborators, including Isabella Reectenwald, Emily Steinbach, Deborah Dierks, Jamie Monck, and Jessica Dorman.

Special pre-concert presentation by Daniel Gilliam,
Program Director at WUOL available at 2:45 p.m.

The Concert is free. Our spotlight mission is
The Hildegard House, Kentucky's first and only comfort care home.

The Concert Series of Second Presbyterian Church will present Kaleidoscope on Sunday, November 22, 2020 at 3 p.m via their YouTube Channel: 2ndpreslou. Second Presbyterian's professional octet and special guest artists and collaborators present an array of vocal and instrumental works from Bach to Broadway. The program will include the quintessential operatic quartet from Verdi's Rigoletto, cabaret and Broadway selections, and the stunning Bachianas Brasileiras by Villa Lobos. A pre-concert lecture will be available at 2:45 p.m. on the YouTube channel. Daniel Gilliam, program director and afternoon host at WUOL and a friend of great music in Louisville will present. The Concert is free.

In our continuing spotlight on mission partners, a freewill offering will be taken to support The Hildegard House, Kentucky's first and only comfort care facility providing end-of-life care for those who have no home or loved ones to care for them so they may die with dignity. Please visit the Concert Series Tab on the Giving page on this website, and designate the gift "In honor of Hildegard House."
