

Welcome to Second Presbyterian Church

Sharing the grace of God with one another and the world around us.

learn about our life at Second.

With gratitude to God, 2026 moves Second Presbyterian Church one year closer to celebrating our bicentennial milestone. After reflecting on our achievements and evaluating our current mission, we have identified 5 strategic pathways that will help us meet the needs of our congregation in 2030. We invite you to join us on our continued journey to preserve, strengthen, and innovate our community of faith.

This church welcomes you no matter who you are, where you come from, or why you are here. We are Christ's people; if you are looking for a home, stay here; if you need instruction, learn from us as we learn from you. We invite visitors to join us, but most of all, to return often.

TOLLING OF THE HOUR

WELCOME & CALL TO WORSHIP

INTROIT Simple Song (from MASS) Leonard Bernstein, 1971

Mary-Hollis Hundley, soprano; Mengfei Xu, piano

Sing God a simple song: lauda, laude.

Make it up as you go along, lauda, laude...

Sing like you like to sing;

God loves all simple simple things, for God is the simplest of all.

I will sing the Lord a new song; to praise Him, to bless Him, to bless the Lord.

I will sing his praises, while I live, all of my days.

Blessed is the one who loves the Lord, blessed is the one who praises Him;

lauda, lauda, laude...and walks in His ways.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills from whence comes my help.

I will lift up my voice to the Lord singing lauda, laude.

For the Lord is my shade, is the shade upon my right hand,

And the Sun shall not smite me by day, nor the Moon by night.

Blessed is the one who loves the Lord, lauda, lauda, laude. and walks in his ways....

Lauda, lauda, laude, lauda, laudadi dadi de.

All of my days...

PRESENTING THE MEANS OF GRACE

*HYMN We Have Come at Christ's Own Bidding HYFRYDOL

We have come at Christ's own bidding to this high and holy place,
Where we wait with hope and longing for some token of God's grace.
Here we pray for new assurance that our faith is not in vain,
Searching like those first disciples for a sign both clear and plain.

Light breaks through our clouds and shadows;
splendor bathes the flesh-joined Word;
Moses and Elijah marvel as the heavenly voice is heard.

Eyes and hearts behold with wonder how the law and prophets meet:
Christ, with garments drenched in brightness, stands transfigured and complete.

Strengthened by this glimpse of glory, fearful lest our faith decline,
We, like Peter, find it tempting to remain and build a shrine.
But true worship gives us courage to proclaim what we profess,
That our daily lives may prove us people of the God we bless.

*PRAYER OF CONFSSION read in unison

God of love and mercy, we confess that too often we mistake our own desires for your will. We get distracted by selfish hopes and fears for the future, rather than seeking signs of hope and working for what you desire. We say we want things to change, but really, we want someone else to do the changing. We resist transformation, and sometimes do not even believe it is possible. Forgive who we have been, change who we are, and guide who we will be; in Jesus' name we pray.

Time for silent prayer.

*ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Dear friends, let this Gospel truth permeate into your very bones:
Through Jesus Christ, we are forgiven and set free!
Thanks be to God! Amen.

*RESPONSE HYMN 583

Glory to God

GLORY TO GOD (TAIZE)

Glory to God, glory to God; Glory in the highest!
Glory to God, glory to God! Alleluia, alleluia!

The Response

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH read in unison

The Confession of 1967

The life, death, resurrection, and promised coming of Jesus Christ has set the pattern for the church's mission.

His life as man involves the church in the common life of people. His service to men and women commits the church to work for every form of human well-being. His suffering makes the church sensitive to all the sufferings of mankind so that it sees the face of Christ in the faces of persons in every kind of need. His crucifixion discloses to the church God's judgment on the inhumanity of people toward one another and the awful consequences of their complicity in injustice. In the power of the risen Christ and the hope of his coming, the church sees the promise of God's renewal of human life in society and of God's victory over all wrong.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Come Dwell in Solomon's Walls

Z. Randall Stroope

The Octet (8:30); The Sanctuary Choir (11)

When the final timber lay 'gainst the measured stones,
 With the door-posts in their place overlaid with gold.
 The Lord appeared to Solomon, blessing all the house,
 Also the temple of the ark of God, pure and whole.
 Come dwell in Solomon's walls, come and dwell in the house of the Lord.
 Where the humble bow down, seeking wisdom and strength,
 For the Lord dwells within and heals their land.
 Come dwell in Solomon's walls, come and dwell in the house of the Lord.
 Where wisdom and righteousness, justice and holiness, join at the feet of God.
 When the people of this house kneel and humbly pray,
 When they turn from dark to light and your will obey,
 O Lord of Heaven and Lord of earth, show favor on his house,
 And heal, restore, forgive, and bless, Lord, we pray.
 Come dwell in Solomon's walls, come and dwell in the house of the Lord.
 Where wisdom and righteousness, justice and holiness, join at the feet of God.
