

Deacons

Bob Taylor

Bob has been a member of Second Presbyterian for two years. He has been active in the community for years, belonging to the school board, the Baptist Foundation board and a steering committee making plans to build a new hospital in Corbin, KY. Prior to his time at Second, Bob was active in his church and took mission trips to Barbados and Peru.

Evie Edinger

Evie was an active member of St. Francis in the Fields Church for 34 years. She and her husband, Charlie, joined Second Presbyterian last year. She is serving a second term on the Kilgore Samaritan Counseling Center and has been involved with the Garden Tour for several years. She volunteers at Cabbage Patch and Heuser Hearing and Language Academy. Evie is a member of the Association of the Louisville Orchestra. She is a retired English teacher from JCPS and a retired marriage and family therapist with the Archdiocese of Louisville.

Jean Groskreutz

Jean has been a member of Second Presbyterian Church for almost 50 years. She has taken on a variety of roles at Second. A few of those roles included serving two terms as an Elder, co-chairing the partnership with Peace Presbyterian, organizing the Fine Arts Festival, and teaching Sunday School. She currently is a deacon, a member of Presbyterian Women, a member of the coordinating team for Presbyterian Women at the Presbytery level, and a volunteer at Portland Avenue Community Trust. She looks forward to continuing her service as a deacon.

Liz Haas

Liz has been a member at Second since 1986. She is married to Rick Haas. Liz has been involved with the youth group, played the handbells, taught Sunday school, and served on two search committees. She has two children, Caroline and George Stephens who were both involved with 2PY and are now both living in Montana. Liz is a realtor with Homepage Realty and a residential appraiser with English Appraisal Services.

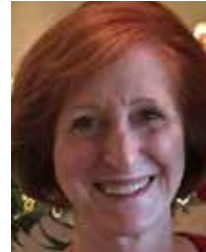

Margaret Cregor Radford

Margaret taught at the weekday school for 18 years and has taught at the weekday school for 18 years. She has devoted 20 years to Second Presbyterian Church as a volunteer accountant, helping to manage the offerings given to the church weekly. She helps assemble the church newsletters that are printed every month. Margaret is ready to take on more duties at Second and looks forward to an opportunity to serve as a deacon.

Odetta Tucker

Odetta is a retired critical care nurse. She and her husband, Walter, have been members of Second Presbyterian Church for 20 years. They have two grown sons and four grandchildren. Odetta is looking forward to becoming more involved in congregational care of the church.

Woody Hitt

Woody is a retired orthopedic surgeon and a member of Second Presbyterian since 1976. He has served on Second's Session as an elder. He is a member of the Kilgore Counseling Center Board. Woody is very active at the Weekday School. His hobbies include reading, model trains and gardening. He looks forward to the opportunity to serve the members as a Deacon.

SEEKING SERVANTS FOR

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Nominations for the Office of Ruling Elder, Trustee and Deacons from the Church Nominating Committee 2019

Each year, the Church Nominating Committee recommends a slate of Ruling Elders to serve a three-year term, and two Youth Co-Elders to serve an 18-month term. This year, the slate is seven Elders. The committee works in prayerful guidance and careful confidentiality to choose these few persons from a wide range of suggested names. They look for a group to be widely representative of the diversity of the congregation. More importantly, they look for spiritual depth, genuine commitment and a team spirit.

We also ask that you consider a slate of two trustees to serve a three-year term. The Board of Trustees consists of six trustees, divided into three classes of two each.

And finally, a slate of seven Deacons to serve up to a three-year term.

Book of Order The Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

G-2.0301 Ruling Elder Defined - As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament church provided persons with particular gifts to share in discernment of God's Spirit and governance of God's people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling elders are so named not because they "lord it over" the congregation (Matt. 20:25), but because they are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the Word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life. Ruling elders, together with teaching elders, exercise leadership, government, spiritual discernment, and discipline and have responsibilities for the life of a congregation as well as the whole church, including ecumenical relationships. When elected by the congregation, they shall serve faithfully as members of the session. When elected as commissioners to higher councils, ruling elders participate and vote with the same authority as teaching elders, and they are eligible for any office.

G-4.0101 Incorporation and Power - Where permitted by civil law, each congregation shall cause a corporation to be formed and maintained. If incorporation is not permitted, individual trustees shall be elected by the congregation. Any such individual trustees shall be elected from the congregation's members in the same manner as those elected to the ordered ministries of deacon and ruling elder. Terms of service shall be governed by the provisions of G-2.0404.

G-2.0201 Deacon Defined - The ministry of deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service, sharing in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment should be chosen for this ministry.

Elders

Beverly Will

Beverly and her husband, David, have been members of Second Presbyterian for over 25 years. Beverly has served on the property committee, volunteered in the church office and teaches Sunday School for very active and engaged children; serving in that capacity brings her much joy. Beverly has served as a Stephen Minister.

Henry Kelsey

Henry has been a member of Second Presbyterian Church for 27 years. He is married to Debbie, and they have three children, all of whom have grown up in the church. Henry has served on the youth committee, been a youth advisor, and he has been the clerk of session on two separate occasions. He spent many years on evangelism, where he was the committee moderator and leader of the new member inquiry classes.

Jodie Goldberg

Jodie is active in the Second Presbyterian Church community, especially in Second's music ministry, which she has participated in for 19 years. Before retirement, Jodie was editor of a daily newspaper; founder of a college journalism department; and head of corporate communications departments for GE, PepsiCo, and Capital Holding. At a previous PC(USA) church, she held roles as an elder, deacon, Presbytery commissioner, and committee head. Jodie is looking forward to taking on a new role as elder at Second.

Judy Hettmansperger

Judy has lived in Louisville 10 years and been a member of Second Presbyterian Church for nine. Her family includes her husband of 60 years, Tom, two daughters, two sons-in law, and three grandchildren. Judy is ready to commit more of her time to serve Second. In the past, Judy has served as a Stephen Minister, been on the music committee and participated on the search committee for associate pastor. She enjoys playing bells with Golden Bells. Her hobbies are reading, playing the piano and playing bridge.

Mark Shiflet

Mark and his wife, Jill, have been members of Second Presbyterian since 1995. They have three teenage children Grady, Stone, and Piper. Mark grew up in the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina. He is the founder of Real Estate Services Group.

Sean Lohman

Sean has been a member of Second Presbyterian Church for 25 years. He is an ordained Elder and served previously on the Session. Sean served as chairman of the education committee and the church nominating committee. Sean served on the Second Presbyterian Weekday School Board, is a Stephen Minister, and taught many years of Sunday School – both children and adult. Sean has four children, all of whom grew up at Second.

Ken Middleton

Ken has been a member of Second Presbyterian since 1998 and has served two terms as elder. He has taught adult Sunday School class, and served on Mission and Communications Committees. He is now retired. In the past, he has been a consultant in strategic communications, vice president of a national nonprofit, television station manager and broadcast journalist. Ken is active in Leadership Louisville and Volunteers of America.

Ensley Ogden

Ensley is a junior at Kentucky Country Day School who loves English class. She plays volleyball, is on the cheer team, and plays the ukelele. She is active in the 2PY Girls Bible Study.

Nicholas Moloney

Nicholas has been a member of Second Presbyterian his entire life. He is active in Second's Youth. He helps with church childcare for special events and worked Smiley Camp and VBS. This past summer he went on the Costa Rica mission trip and attend the Presbyterian Youth Triennium. Nicholas is a junior at DuPont Manual High School and plays the trumpet in the YPAS Band programl.

Trustees

David Wood

David is a vice president of JLL, specializing in tenant representation and advisory services in Louisville. David has been involved in several charitable organizations, including chairing or serving on the boards of the James Brown Cancer Center, Norton Psychiatric Council, Cabbage Patch Settlement House, Filson Historical Society, Metro United Way, and the Capital Campaign for 21st Century Parks. He is a member of Leadership Louisville and a Bingham Fellow. David looks forward to the opportunity to serve the church as a Trustee.

Susan Moss

Susan is senior vice president of Enterprise Marketing and Communications for Kindred. In her role, Susan is responsible for both internal and external communications and enterprise marketing, including the company's Contact Center. She successfully renamed and rebranded the Company to Kindred and leads the communications and marketing strategy for Continue the Care. She was responsible for creating 1.866.KINDRED and the Contact Center. Prior to joining the company in 1996, Susan founded Kentucky's third largest public relations and marketing business specializing in consumer public relations.

