Reflections

Dear Friends,

I had a list of things to do this past Monday afternoon, but never got around to it. Instead, I sat and stared at the images of Notre Dame burning. I could not tear myself away from the screen. How could this ancient, magnificent structure, one of the most prominent symbols of western Christianity and civilization, go up in flames? Commentators speculated about what was being consumed by the fire. A rumor surfaced that the very structure was doomed. It added up to a profound sadness, a powerful sense of loss.

Over the past few days there has been surprising and hopeful news. Many artistic, religious, and cultural treasures were rescued or undamaged. The structure of Notre Dame was declared safe and solid. There is united determination to rebuild as quickly as possible and huge amounts of money are being pledged toward that effort. Historians remind us that the cathedral has been in peril many times over the centuries and has always risen from the ashes.

Even so, that fire points us to the truth that nothing stands forever. No human creation is exempt from the power of time passing, of human error and ignorance, of the unpredictability of nature, and the power of that abiding darkness within us and among us. We cannot, finally, guarantee anything. Yet we are often surprised, even indignant, when chaos does its work, when loss hits hard.

In this Easter season we are mindful that there is only one constant, one thing on which we can rely and depend, one power stronger than sin and chaos. The writer of Psalm 103 says it best: “As for mortals, their days are like grass; they flourish like a flower of the field; for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more. But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting.” It is steadfast love that raised Jesus from the place of death. It is steadfast love that holds us in life and in death. It is steadfast love that endures forever, that can never be defeated, and that finally will bring to life the promise of a new and perfect creation.

In the assurance of that constant, faithful, and all-powerful love we live, and move, and have our being. It is the light that guides our steps and illumines our path, pushing back the darkness. Let us walk, today and every day, in the light of the risen, reigning Lord, Jesus Christ!

Grace and peace,

Steve Jester

Dear Church Friends,

I want to express my deepest appreciation for the outpouring of love through cards, gifts, prayers and concern in light of the death of my husband, Niels Ewing.

You have been a blessing to me in this time of sorrow.

Sincerely, and with love,

Dixie Baird

Elizabeth Clay Parish Associate

Dear Friends,

While helping Steve to prepare for his sabbatical, the Personnel Committee realized a need for a parish associate to help plan liturgy, assist in worship, visit sick and homebound members, teach Sunday School, and relieve Nathan and Jim when necessary.

I am humbled and excited to have been asked to serve our church in this capacity while Steve is away and am hopeful that my acceptance of the role brings Steve, the rest of the staff, and the congregation added peace about his leave.

Since Steve will be studying prayer on his sabbatical, I thought it would be meaningful to use the Sunday School class as an opportunity to participate in his journey; therefore, we will be studying prayer as well. I hope you will join me on Sunday mornings for this special class in June and July.

I look forward to stepping into this new role for a few months and am hopeful that you won't hesitate to reach out with any questions, concerns, or needs you might have.

Blessings,

Elizabeth Clay

Teresa Larson "Goodbye for Now"

Dear friends,

As my internship draws to a close on May 12, I want to thank the congregation for all you have done to make this year such a tremendous gift for me. I am so grateful for the invitations that you have extended to me to worship, serve, learn, grieve, and celebrate with you. Thank you for all you do to be a part of God's work in the world and for allowing me to be a part of it. I would also like to give special thanks to my Nurturing Committee (Elizabeth Clay, Ed McShane, Wayne Rudloff and Sandy Bailey) as well as Nathan, Steve, and the rest of the staff for their special investment in my vocational and personal growth over the last eight months.

Fortunately, May 12 will only be "goodbye for now!" After I complete my summer internship with Norton Healthcare, I'll be returning to Second Pres in the fall for another year of worshipping, serving, and glorifying God. I am filled with joy and gratitude for the opportunity to finish my seminary career alongside a community I have come to deeply love. I look forward to finding out what God has in store for Second Pres in the next year, and what ways I can be a part of it!

With joyful thanksgiving,

Teresa Larson

Jim Reuther—Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant

If you have attended the early worship service over the past several decades, it's likely you've come across Jim Reuther. Jim has served as an usher for more than thirty years at Second Presbyterian Church. He's been here early to make sure all is prepared in the Chapel when worshippers arrive. He has handed out bulletins and collected the offering. Jim even keeps a watchful eye on the sun streaming in through the east windows, closing the shutters when the light is too strong. He, along with his trusty sidekick Joe Sudduth, has been a faithful, reassuring presence for a couple of generations of worshippers.

As of May, Jim has "retired" from ushering at the 8:30 service. There is no way to thank him adequately for his service. We presented to Jim – the former Athletic Director at Ballard High School for nearly thirty years – a Louisville Slugger bat as we honored him in early worship on Easter. Inscribed on the barrel of the bat is "Faithful Servant." It's a shortened form of words of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew: "Well done, good and faithful servant." That says it all. Thank you, Jim!

A BIT ABOUT PAUL JACOBS, OUR CONCERT SERIES GUEST – MAY 21

Heralded as "one of the major musicians of our time" by Alex Ross of The New Yorker and as "America's leading organ performer" by The Economist, the internationally celebrated organist Paul Jacobs combines a probing intellect and extraordinary technical mastery with an unusually large repertoire, both old and new. An eloquent champion of his instrument, Mr. Jacobs is known for his imaginative interpretations and charismatic stage presence. He has performed to great critical acclaim on five continents and in each of the fifty United States and is the only organist ever to have won a Grammy Award—in 2011. During the 2018-19 season, Mr. Jacobs continues to expand both his repertoire and international reach. He performed the world premiere of John Harbison's What Do We Make of Bach? for organ and orchestra with the Minnesota Orchestra under conductor Osmo Vänskä in October 2018. November took Mr. Jacobs to Switzerland, where he performed Barber's Toccata Festiva with the Lucerne Symphony Orchestra and conductor James Gaffigan. This season he also deepened his long-standing collaboration with the Cleveland Orchestra as soloist in the American premiere of Austrian composer Bernd Richard Deutsch's Okeanos for organ and orchestra in March 2019. Mr. Jacobs will appear in recital under the auspices of the Los Angeles Philharmonic at Disney Hall and the American Guild of Organists at the Segerstrom Center in Costa Mesa, the Madison Symphony Orchestra, and the Bach Festival Society of Winter Park. Mr. Jacobs continues as Director of the Oregon Bach Festival Organ Institute, a position he assumed in the summer of 2014. That same year, Paul was appointed the youngest organ chair at Juilliard School of Music.

“For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Matthew 6:21

Since our last report 33 additional families have made a 2019 pledge of financial support!

Many thanks to the 285 families/individuals who have pledged to the 2019 ministry action plan.

Pledges received so far = $1,147,106.

To fully fund all that we need and hope to accomplish in 2019, pledges need to equal at least $1,300,000. So, we remain $152,894 from our goal.

As a reminder we are asking each family to also reimburse our church $25 per confirmed member that our church has already paid for 2019 to Presbyterian Church USA.

If you have never pledged, please consider doing so. Though size does matter, if you don't want to hear from members of the Stewardship Committee, a gift of any amount will get you off our list. FYI, the Stewardship Committee does not see the amount of your pledge. All we see is who has pledged and who has not.

You can pledge by returning the pledge card that was mailed to you, by calling Jacob Hein at 895-3483, ext. 225 or emailing him at jhein@2ndpreslou.org. You may also give on-line at 2ndpreslou.org/giving. If you will type in the word “pledge” in the box under “specific campaign”, it will count as your pledge. If you are making a gift for per confirmed member, please put “per capita reimbursement” in the box.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact one of our ministers, Jacob Hein, or a member of your Stewardship Committee.

Thank you!

Lisa Warner....

You will be missed.

I do a pretty good job at keeping my voicemail box empty. I am diligent about erasing messages after I have tended to them. There is one, however, that I will not erase. This special message in my voicemail is not one that asked anything of me. I did not need to call anyone back, retrieve any information or do any deed. It was a message of gratitude. It was from Lisa after a Chapel I had led for the kiddos at the Weekday School. It simply said, "thank you," for a job well done and how grateful she was to have me at Second Pres. I listen to that voicemail on days I need a "pick-me-up."

I can only imagine how many times she has done this for the children, families, teachers and colleagues of the Weekday School. Her love for children knows no bounds and can be seen by her tireless work ethic and her attention to every detail. She is present: in carpool, at chapel, at birthday celebrations in classrooms, at staff meetings, board meetings, fundraising events and picnics. She has created an environment where teachers are proud of the work they do. Continuing education is top notch and always on the cutting edge of early childhood best practices. She has led Second Presbyterian preschool to serve as a model for other preschools in the city and nation. She has created a sense of family with compassion, empathy and Christ centeredness.

Thank you, Lisa, for your time with us. We pray for you as we see you off to your next phase in life. Spouse to Michael, mother to Hannah, Matt and Claire, grandmother to Elsie and Beatrice, mentor to so many, a blessing to us all.

Lorie Williamson
Director of Children's Ministries

Welcome Hayley Abell!

After a wide-ranging search, it is with great enthusiasm we have selected our new Director to lead the Weekday School beginning this summer. We had three wonderful finalists that the Search Committee narrowed down from 46 candidates. We have chosen Hayley Abell to lead our innovative school into the 2019-20 school year and going forward.

Her experience in early childhood development, her Masters in the Art of Teaching, her energy and knowledge, and her positive disposition makes her a great match for what our program needs to meet the challenges that await us in the future. Hayley has fourteen years of professional experience teaching children from ages two to eleven.

She is currently on staff at Chance School, where she has taught a combined Kindergarten/First Grade class for five years. She began her tenure at Chance teaching three-year olds for the first year there. While at Chance, she developed her visionary and leadership skills by serving on the school's Strategic Plan Committee for the school's vision, the Outdoor Classroom Committee, and served on their Program Advisory Committee.

Prior to Chance, Hayley was on staff here at Second Pres serving as a Behavioral and Play Therapist and then serving as a co-teacher in a twos and threes classroom. Her knowledge and research is in strong alignment with our school's purposeful and research-based focus on play, creativity and exploration. Her research and writing skills are most evident in a recently co-authored published section of Harvey Daniel's book, The Curious Classroom.

Hayley and her husband, Mike, are parents to two children, Jack and Anna, both of whom are Second Pres alumni. As both a former parent and a teacher here, she has been immersed in the "Second Pres way of life". She looks forward to partnering with our staff and our parents to provide an engaging high quality experience grounded in best practices of child development. In addition, she is excited to work with the Church staff and serve in a Church where grace prevails. She is committed to continuing our legacy of quality. She feels like she is coming home.

Please join us in welcoming her back into the fold as our new Director and praying for her as she leads us forward.

Warmly,
Search Committee: Bob Horton, Chair, Elizabeth Clay, Martha Hall, Courtney Hunter, Amanda McNally, Annie Walker and Patty West

Advisory Members: Steve Jester, Pastor, Lisa Warner and Lorie Williamson

Our 2018 Refugees are Thriving in Louisville!

Geneuse, Immaculee, and Judith have become a strong part of Louisville. Their whole family is grateful for support from Second Presbyterian in the last few months. You have graciously offered time, financial support, community connections, medical recommendations, participation in local activities, furniture and household goods, and hours of work to prepare their apartment for occupancy. The family has purchased a house at 1456 Cypress Street to fulfill their dream of owning their own home and are able to all live together. Five family members are working: Geneuse, Immaculee, and Judith are working full time at UPS. Geneuse is taking college classes at JCC. Judith is taking a preparatory class for an admission exam for the School of Dentistry at UofL.

We hope you were able to meet the family when they visited our church

March 31. There was a joyous crowd in the narthex after the service! It will be wonderful to keep up with everyone's progress in the days to come.

Thanks for your hard work!

New KRM Sponsorship

The Second Presbyterian Mission Refugee Committee is planning to welcome a new family from Africa! In late May or early June, Second Presbyterian will co-sponsor a family through Kentucky Refugee Ministries.

We are told that a number of refugees will be arriving in Kentucky; KRM will match us with a small to medium-sized family. We are preparing for their arrival by storing furniture, bedding, and kitchen items at the church. Our storage space is under the stairs at the handicap entrance. Take the elevator to the lower level. Go through the double doors to your left and place your items in any of the cabinets or on the floor against the walls. There is a sign designating this space. We have already been notified of a furniture donation. It has begun!

Watch for details as they become available in Seconds to Go and in the church bulletin. We will also have a sign-up booth in the Welcome Center on Sunday, May 5, to sign up for items to bring in for the refugees. Thank you all for your support and enthusiasm!

MAY MISSION OF THE MONTH

BOOK Notes

On Tuesday, May 7, we will have read "Where the Crawdads Sing" by Delia Owens. This is her debut novel and has been an incredible success.

Described as "painfully beautiful", a celebration of nature, as well as a murder mystery and the coming of age story of a young girl, abandoned and growing up in the marshlands of North Carolina, sure to be a great discussion led by Linda Wood.

On June 11, we will review "The Library Book" written by Susan Orlean, selected by Mary Jean Kinsman.

The Men's Bible Study will continue to focus on the Psalms, and in May we will begin using Eugene Peterson's A Long Obedience in the Same Direction. Peterson was a Presbyterian minister who founded a church in Maryland and served there his entire ministry. He is the translator of The Message, a widely used translation of the Bible into contemporary English, and wrote several books. A Long Obedience is one of his early writings and has become a minor classic, selling more than 200,000 copies. The theme is the role of perseverance in living the Christian life, focusing on the Psalms of Ascent, 120-134, which the people of Israel used in climbing the mountain to worship in the temple.

Sisters In Spirit

Sisters in Spirit is a warm, supportive group of ladies who enjoy a special time of fellowship and book discussion around topics that help them grow in their everyday faith. The SPOT group is open to adult women of all ages and stages of life. This year our book of study is "Love Does" by Bob Goff.

We hope to see you on June 11 at the home of Jeanne Curtis, 2500 Glenmary Avenue #201, at 7 p.m. Please contact Jeanne Curtis, Jeannecurtis@bellsouth.net, if you have questions.

Hello! My name is Jordan Akin. I was born and raised in Little Rock, Arkansas where I grew up as a member of 2nd Presbyterian in Little Rock. I was a very active member of the youth group throughout middle and high school and was elected as a youth deacon in high school. I graduated from Hendrix College in 2014 with a B.A. in Religious Studies. After college, I went on to be a Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) which is a year of service program through the PC(USA). My first year as a YAV was in Hollywood, CA where I worked for an organization called People Assisting the Homeless (PATH) which within the Hollywood area offers services to those experiencing homelessness. I then completed a second YAV year in Asheville, NC where I worked at a YMCA conference center in Black Mountain. I worked with their service learning and outdoor education programs. During the second half of my YAV year in Asheville, I was an intern at Black Mountain Presbyterian Church where I primarily worked with their youth group. Currently, I am a student at Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary where I will receive my Masters of Divinity this May! Yay! In my free time, I like to be in nature, whether that is just watching the sunset at a park, or hiking up a mountain or to a waterfall. During the school year, I am mainly focused on two activities: my studies and building a community of friends among students at the seminary. I am beyond thrilled to spend a second summer here working with the youth and getting to know the members here!
